

Colusa County

Community Advocates for Parents and Children

Board Member Application

Colusa County Community Advocates for Parents and Children collaborates with public and private agencies to coordinate child abuse prevention, intervention and treatment activities. It is the vision of this council that we will live in a community where children are valued, nurtured, protected and will reach their full potential; where high functioning families provide an environment that allows for children to thrive; where community agencies providing services to children and families will collaborate to realize this vision.

The Board of Directors is the governing body for the council responsible for setting overall direction, making policy decisions, establishing long range goals, hiring and evaluating the Executive Director, monitoring compliance with funding terms and conditions, and ensuring that the organization remains faithful to its vision and mission.

We are committed to the recruitment of a strong board that meets Welfare and Institution Code requirements and reflects the overall diversity of our community.
